SYNOD OF VIRGINIA.

[For the Dispatch.]

The missionary meeting last night was a grand success. The addresses of Rev. Drs. J. L. Wilson, J. S. Lefevre, C. H. Read, William Brown, and William Dinwiddle were rich in thought and replete with information, and seemed to warm up every heart in behalf of this important cause. The singing by the choir and congregation was hearty and inspiring, and the closing prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Read.

3. That Presbyteries are again urged to make their reports to Synod on Sunday schools more complete.

An earnest discussion ensued, and Rev Dr. Hazen said: "We carefully watch the pulpit, but fail somewhat in regard to the teachings and conduct of the Sunday school. We need in this matter organization and oversight; a systematizing of our work; a careful preparation of our teachers for their duties, with a thorough course of training to fit them for it."

The speaker urged the appointment of presbyterial superintendents and the formation of normal classes for the benefit of our teachers in all our churches. He detailed what other denominations are doing in this field, and felt that our own Church had failed to come up to a high standard in the work. He also suggested the appointment by the regard the building as insecure, and the material, both brick and wood, as much impaired and decayed from age. After animated discussion Rev. Dr. Schenck moved as amendment that all after the word "provided" in the last section be stricken out. This also led to prolonged discussion; but the report was finally adopted with Dr. Schenck's amendment. The vote steed—clerical, 41 ayes, 5 noes; lay, 35 ayes, 3 noes.

A message was received from the House of Bishops nominating Rev. Dr. John Adams Paddock, of the Diocese of Long Island, as missionary bishop of Washington Territory, and the House of Deputies, in secret session, confirmed the nomination.

The report of the Committee on the State of the Church on the subject of polygamy of the chirch of the Church on the subject of polygamy of the chirch of d the amble and resolution, adopted; was presented, and, with the following presented and the set interests of the Curied of Christ and the best interests of Christian eivilization are seriously impeded in one of the Territories of the United States by the existence of polygamy, recognized by a large portion of the community as a reflect in the part of the content of the United States by the Government of the United States by the Government of the United States by the United States by the United States by the United States by the Supreme Court of the United States by the Supreme Court of the United States; therefore be it Resolved (the House of Bishops concurring). That while there are peculiar difficulties in the execution of this law, owing to religious fanaticism, doubtless often-times sincere, by which the finishing of the Court of the United States is the receipt of the Court of the United States in the receipt of the Court of the United States in the receipt of the Court of the United States in the receipt of the Court of the United States in the execution of this law, owing to religious fanaticism, doubtless often-times sincere, by which the institution of polygamy is upheld, and especially to the fact that the interests of many inconsistent persons are unappoily involved, it is still the duty of every Christian and citizen of the country of the special polygamy of the court of the law in regard to polygamy or bigamy in the Territorites of the United States of the Online States of the Court of the law in regard to polygamy or bigamy in the Territorites of the United States of the Online States of the Court of
